

AGS Parents' Circle
BUILDING COMMUNITY

Proposed Slate of Officers for 2020-2021

Co-President (2 year term expiring 2022): Isoke Harris

Isoke is the mother of a 7th-grade AGS cross country and swim team member. Isoke has served as a grade parent representative for the Class of 2026. She has also volunteered with Pizza Mondays and as a Hurricane Watch volunteer for swim meets and tournaments. As co-president, Isoke hopes to further the mission and uphold the sense of community AGS fosters. Isoke currently serves on several community boards. Professionally, Isoke is a multiunit restaurant franchise owner.

Treasurer: Amy Kelly

Amy has an 8th grader at AGS and is excited to serve as PC treasurer! Amy has held many previous volunteer positions at her childrens' schools including Morris Brandon fundraising chair and MB Jamboree Chair. Currently Amy serves as treasurer of the Hanover West Club. Amy is co-owner of 10/23 Construction.

Secretary: Hayley Alli

Parent of 9th grader, Raveena Alli, this will be Hayley's second term as PC Secretary. At her son's elementary school, she shares the room parent social planning responsibilities with another parent and stays committed to volunteering at both schools when she can. She currently sits on the board for the National Organization of Parents of Blind Children (NOPBC) and she is President for the Georgia Parents of Blind Children.

Vice President of Parent Communications: Dana Hudepohl

Dana Hudepohl has a 7th grader at AGS and has served as a frequent volunteer and Grade Rep for 6th and 7th grades. Last year, she served as the Communications & PR Chair for the parents' group at her son's school. Dana has been a freelance magazine writer for 25 years.

Vice President of Events: Michele Howard

Michele's 10th grader has been at AGS since grade 6. Michele has served as an AGS class rep, an annual fund current/past parent champion at The Schenck School, and she started the Learning Differences parent group at Atlanta International School. Michele's background includes finance, business development and communications. She is co-founder of FareWorks, a culinary training program for people with difficult employment prospects, and supports her husband's catering company, Gourmet Innovations.

Vice President of Teacher Appreciation: J Chase Clemo

Chase has a 6th grader and is new this year to AGS. Chase has served in many different capacities such as Room Parent, Event Parent, Gala Chair, Board Secretary, Decor Chair, Teacher Appreciation, Bingo Night Chair, Family Fun Night Chair, Book Fair Chair and Parent Community Co-Chair at her daughter's previous schools. She worked previously as a Program Manager at AT&T but decided to stop working to focus on her family and dedicate her time to volunteer. Chase is passionate about volunteering at AGS and is excited to get started!
